Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestick.

BY THE HONOURABLE

GEORGE THOMAS, Esq;

Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennsylvania; and Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex on Delaware:

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS His Majesty hath been graciously pleased to signify unto me, by his Instructions under his Royal Sign Manual, Dated at the Court of St. James's the Second Day of April 1740: That having been called upon by repeated Provocations, to declare War against Spain, His Majesty is determin'd, by GOD's Assistance, in so just a Cause, to vindicate the Honour of His Imperial Crown, to Revenge the Injuries done to His Subjects, to assert their undoubted Rights of Commerce and Navigation; and by all possible Means to attack, annoy and distress a Nation, that has treated His Majesty's Subjects with such Insolence and Barbarity.

And hath therefore given Orders, for the equipping and setting forth of an Expedition against the Territories of the Catholick King in the West Indies; which will consist of a large Squadron of His Majesty's Ships of War, and of a considerable Body of His Majesty's Land Forces, with a suitable Train of Artillery, Storeships and Transports: The Fleet to be commanded by EDWARD VERNON, Esq; Vice-Admiral of the Blue Squadron of His Majesty's Fleet, and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships imployed, or to be imployed in the West-Indies; and the Land Forces, by the Right Honourable CHARLES Lord CATHCART, Major General of His Majesty's Forces, and General and Commander in Chief of the said Expedition.

His Majesty hath also determined to raise a Body of Troops in his Colonies on the Continent of North-America, to join those to be sent from England, at a particular Rendezvous, which will be appointed for that Purpose, and to act in Conjunction with them, under the Command of His Majesty's General, in such Dispositions, as shall be made for His Majesty's Service. And altho' His Majesty hath not thought fit to fix any particular Quota for His Majesty's Province of Pennsylvania, because He would not set Bounds to their Zeal for His Service, yet His Majesty, considering the great Number of Inhabitants in His said Province, and that they have of late Years been much increased, His Majesty doubts not in the least but they will exert themselves upon this Occasion, as far as the Circumstances of the Colony will allow; being assur'd, they cannot render a more acceptable Service to His Majesty, and to their Mother Country, or do any Thing more essential for their own Interest.

And I am commanded by His Majesty, to assure His good Subjects in the said Province, That the Troops to be raised in pursuance of His Majesty's Instructions, as well Officers as Soldiers shall enter into His Majesty's Pay, and enjoy the same Rank and Pay with the rest of His Majesty's British Troops, so long as they shall continue in His Majesty s Service.

And that all Serjeants, Corporals, Drummers and private Soldiers, shall be entitled to receive His Majesty's Pay, from the respective Days on which they shall be inlisted; and that the Commission Officers shall enter into Pay from the Day their Commissions bear Date; and they shall take Post and Rank in the respective Battalions, into which they shall be formed, according to the Date of the Certificates, by which it shall appear, when each Captain respectively had compleated his Levies.

And as a further Encouragement to such Officers and Soldiers, as shall engage in the present Expedition, I am commanded to assure them IN HIS MAJESTY's NAME, That the Soldiers shall not only be cloathed, and armed, and furnish'd with Tents, and entertained in his Majesty's Pay, but that after their Arrival at the general Place of Rendezvous, they shall be provided for in every other Respect, as His Majesty's British Troops; that they shall likewise have their just Share and Proportion of all Plunder or Booty gained or taken from the Enemy, according to their Services: And if, by the Blessing of GOD, upon His Majesty's Arms, any of the Enemies Lands or Settlements shall fall into His Majesty's Hands, His Majesty's American Troops shall have a Share thereof, as well as the rest of His Forces, in Preference to all other Persons, that shall not have engaged in the present Expedition.

And His Majesty doth further declare, That so soon as the present Expedition shall be determined, whatever the Success thereof may be, all the Troops raised in His Majesty's American Colonies for this Purpose, as well Officers as Soldiers, shall have free Leave to return to their respective Provinces, and shall be transported thither at His Majesty's Expence, except those only, that shall chuse, for their own Advantage, to settle or remain in such Places or Garrisons as may fall into His Majesty's Hands, where they shall receive all due Encouragement; and the Soldiers, whether they remain there, or return home after the said Expedition, shall retain their Arms and Cloathing.

It is His Majesty's further Pleasure, That I do engage such Persons within this Province in the present Expedition, both for the Transport and Land Service, as have at any Time been resident in, or have a particular Knowledge of the Spanish Ports, Coasts or Settlements in the West-Indies; and his Majesty doth assure such as are able Pilots for the said Coasts, that their Service shall meet with a suitable Encouragement.

His

His Majeſty hath likewiſe thought fit to diſpatch the Honourable Col. WILLIAM BLAKENEY, Adjutant-General of all His Majeſty's Forces to be employed in the preſent Expedition, with Money, Cloaths, Arms, Ammunition, and all other Neceſſaries for the Uſe of His Majeſty's American Troops.

And as His Majeſty doth very earneſtly recommend the Advancement of this Expedition to all his loving Subjects in this Government, and in particular hath commanded me to promote and encourage ſo neceſſary a Diſpoſition with my utmoſt Zeal and Diligence, with an Aſſurance, that it will be very graciouſly accepted by him: I do in His Majeſty's Name, and with the Advice of Council, iſſue this Proclamation, inviting his Majeſty's good Subjects to inliſt in His Service, for effecting ſo honourable a Deſign, and which will be (if it ſhall pleaſe the Almighty to proſper His Majeſty's Arms, which from the Juſtice of the Cauſe, we have the greateſt Reaſon to expect) ſo advantageous to the Britiſh Nation, to the Northern Colonies, and to every Adventurer. At the ſame Time, exhorting & commanding all Magiſtrates, Officers and others, to behave in their reſpective Stations, as becomes loyal Subjects to his Majeſty, under whoſe Protection we enjoy the greateſt Bleſſings of this Life, Liberty, both Civil and Religious.

GIVEN under my Hand and the Great Seal of the Province of Pennſylvania, at Philadelphia, the Ninth Day of July, in the Fourteenth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, and of our LORD CHRIST, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Forty.

By Command. GEORGE THOMAS.

THOMAS LAWRIE, Secry.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

LONDON, April 3.

A Spaniſh Privateer having taken an Engliſh Ship under the Guns of the Caſtle of Civitta Vecchia, and carry'd her into that Port, the Cardinals Chief of Orders have declared the Prize to be illegal, and order'd it to be reſtored; at the ſame time commanding all the Governors of Sea Port Towns in the Eccleſiaſtical State not to ſuffer any Privateers to cruize before thoſe Places, nor carry any Prizes into them.

From Turin they write, that the King of Sardinia has remounted moſt of his Horſe; that his Regiments of Foot are in a good Condition; and that his Sardinian Majeſty is very attentive to the Conſequences that may enſue from the War betwen England and Spain.

We hear from Bayonne, that the eldeſt Queen Dowager of Spain is dead at Pampelona, in the 70th Year of her Age.

Letters from Berlin ſay, that the King of Pruſſia is on the mending Hand, receives Viſits every Day, and has ſhewn himſelf at his Window to the People ſeveral Times.

They write from Algiers, that the chief Officers of the Troops continue making ſtrong Inſtances to the Dey, in order to prevail with him to undertake the Siege of Oran whilſt the War laſts between England and Spain.

April 26. A private Letter from Deal ſays, that on Wedneſday Morning ſeven French Men of War were ſeen on the back of the Goodwin Sands, ſuppoſed to be bound to the Baltick, to aſſiſt the Swedes againſt the Ruſſians.

Portſmouth, April 27. Yeſterday anchor'd without St. Helen's Road his Majeſty's Ship the Lenox, Capt. Covill Main, the Kent, Capt. Durell, the Rippon, Capt Slaughter, and the Orford, Lord Fitzroy, who brought in with him the Spaniſh Man of War lately taken; ſhe is called the Princeſſa, having 68 Guns mounted, but capable of mounting 86, and is reckon'd as good a Ship as any belonging to the King of Spain; ſhe had near 700 Men on board, and commanded by an old experienced Officer, whoſe Bravery his Generous Enemies extol to the higheſt Degree. The Action laſted near 7 Hours, and the Spaniard had the good Fortune to carry away Capt Mayne's Fore-maſt and Bowſprit at the Beginning, which rendered him incapable of acting any farther; and as ſoon as Capt. Durell came up, he alſo received on unlucky Shot, which obliged him to employ a great Number of Men to keep his Ship clear of Water; notwithſtanding which, the ſaid Captain fought her 5 hours, 2 of which were Yard Arm and Yard Arm, and as deſperate perhaps as ever was known; he had ſome of his Fingers ſhot off in the Engagement; the Spaniard being by much the larger Ship, and having two Hundred Marines on board, was a great Advantage, but nothing could daunt the Courage of Capt. Durell, and his Men, who were determin'd to ſink or conquer; during this Time, the Lord Auguſtus could not fire one Shot, leſt he ſhould injure Capt. Durell; however, at length he brought his Ship in ſuch a Poſition, that ſome of his Guns could have done Execution, at which Inſtant the Spaniard ſtruck to the Kent, but the Orford's Boat boarded her firſt. It is ſaid that the firſt Lieutenant, and ſeveral of the Men were Iriſh, whoſe Treatment, we hear, will be different from that of the reſt of the Crew.

LONDON,

April 29. On Saturday Night an Expreſs arriv'd at the Lord Harrington's Office, with an Account, that Admiral Haddock's Squadron had taken two Spaniſh Ships, having on board a great Number of Soldiers deſign'd for the Iſland of Majorca.

Yeſterday came Advice by Letters from Genoa, that his Majeſty's Ship the Ipſwich of 70 Guns, Capt. Wm. Martin, one of Admiral Haddock's Squadron, has taken off that Place, and carried into Port Mahon, a Spaniſh Privateer with a hundred and fifty Men on board, and ſunk another with all her Men.

This Day his Majeſty went to the Houſe of Peers, and after giving the Royal Aſſent to ſeveral publick and private Bills, put an End to the Seſſion by a moſt gracious Speech to both Houſes.

May 1. 'Tis poſitively ſaid, that Admiral Balchen was ſeen towing into Plymouth Harbour, three Spaniſh Men of War and two Frigates, which he had taken near Cape Finiſterre.

And Yeſterday came Advice, that his Majeſty's Ship the Panther, Capt. Rycaut, of 50 Guns, has taken off Plymouth, two Spaniſh Privateers.

Capt. Durell, Commander of his Majeſty's Ship the Kent, is come to his Houſe at Greenwich to be cured of his Wounds.

May 3. We hear that Fourteen Sail of Men of War are ordered to be got ready with all poſſible Expedition, on an extraordinary Occaſion.

Yeſterday ſeveral Cheſts of Arms were delivered from the Ordinance Office, and ſhipp'd at the Tower, for Col. Lowther's Regiment of Marines in the Iſle of Wight.

On Wedneſday Night laſt, His Grace the Duke of Argyll and Greenwich, reſign'd all his Places, excepting that of Hereditable Maſter of the King's Houſhold in Scotland, worth 2000 l. per Annum.

May 6. This Morning one of his Majeſty's Meſſengers arrived at Whitehall, with an Expreſs from the Right Hon. the Earl of Waldegrave, his Majeſty's Ambaſſador at the Court of France. And

This Day, at Noon, a General Court was held at St. James's, on Affairs of great Importance.

We hear his Majeſty has made the following Promotions.

Duke of Cumberland, Colonel of the Coldſtream Regiment.

Duke of Bolton, Maſter of the Ordnance

Lord Hertford, Col. of the Blue Horſe Guards.

Duke of Marlborough, Captain of the Troop of Horſe, in the Room of the Lord Hertford.

General

General Honywood, Governor of Portſmouth.

Lord Hervey, Keeper of the Privy Seal.

The Right Hon. Lord Sidney Beuclerk, Vice Chamberlain of the Houſhold, is ſworn in one of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council.

The Royal Yachts are getting ready with all Expedition, in order to carry over his Majeſty, and her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Mary, to Holland. His Serene Highneſs the Prince of Heſſe is to meet his Majeſty, and his Royal Conſort, at the Hague, at which Place the Nuptials are to be celebrated. After which it is ſaid their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Orange, and the Prince and Princeſs of Heſſe, will accompany his Majeſty to Germany.

Her Grace the Dutcheſs of Dorſet is appointed to attend her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Mary to the Hague.

They write from Portſmouth, that in the Crew belonging to the Princeſſa Prize, there are no more than Thirty-eight Spaniards, the reſt being French and Iriſh. The French and Iriſh Priſoners are expected this Week at the Marſhalſea: Who, 'tis hop'd, will be made proper Examples of May 8. It is ſaid the Expreſs from the Earl of Waldegrave has brought Advice, That an Order was gone from the French Court, to the Marquis d' Antin, to put to Sea with the Breſt Squadron, with all Expedition.

This Evening, the Princeſs Mary was Married by Proxy, to his Serene Highneſs Prince William of Heſſe.

BOSTON, June 30 We hear from St. Chriſtophers, via Newport, that Five Sail of Engliſh Men of War were ſeen off ſaid Iſland, who ſaid they were going to Jamaica to join Admiral Vernon; we ſuppoſe they were the five Ships under the Command of Commodore Leſtock.

NEW YORK, July 7.

By Capt. Fowle who arrived here Tueſday laſt from Curacoa, we hear that the Spaniards have fitted out 2 Privateer Sloops of 120 Men each, with which they are Cruizing; the one is a fine Bermuda Sloop we mentioned in a former Paper to be taken from Capt. Perenchief; they give out that they intend a Viſit to theſe Coaſts for Proviſions.--- I hope ſome charitable Engliſhmen will give them a few Dumplins and ſome gray Peaſe.

PHILADELPHIA.

This Day arrived a Sloop in 30 Days from Jamaica, who brings Advice, that the Hampton-Court (one of Admiral Vernon's Squadron) has taken off Carthagena, a very rich Prize, and brought her into Jamaica; and that another Man of War had met with a Dutch Ship freighted by the Spaniards, that had Two Millions of Pieces of Eight on board, which ſhe took out and gave Receipts for. That the Spy Pacquet was arriv'd in Jamaica, in 31 Days from Portſmouth, with Diſpatches to Admiral Vernon, acquainting him that the Spaniſh Fleet was got out of Cales and Ferrol, and ſail'd to the Weſtward; upon which Admiral Vernon equipp'd with all Expedition, and was to ſail with his whole Squadron in a few Days, in order to cruize for the Spaniſh Fleet; determining, as 'tis ſaid, to make a Saw-pit Fight of it. That a ſmall Privateer from St. Kitts, with 25 Hands, had taken a Spaniſh Sloop of 70 Men, 4 ſix Pounders and 6 Swivels, laden with very rich Goods, &c.

From the Boſton Evening Poſt.

We think it convenient to inform our Readers, that the Town of Chagre, lately taken by Admiral Vernon, ſtands upon a River of the ſame Name, which has its Source near the S. Sea a few Leagues Eaſt of Panama, and falls into the N Sea not far from Porto Bello. It is by this River that all the Money and Effects ſent by Water from Panama to put on board the Galleons, is conveyed to the Town of Chagre, and from thence ſent to Porto Bello; but at certain Seaſons, when the River is low, they carry the Treaſure upon Mules from Panama directly to Porto Bello. They had a very ſtrong Caſtle upon a Hill, and ſeveral Batteries below at Chagre, ſo long ago as the Year 1670, when it was taken by Capt. Morgan, the famous Engliſh Bucanier, or Pirate, who leaving 500 Men in the Caſtle, and 150 more in his Ships, went up the River with 1200 to Panama, which City he took, plundered and burnt, and having committed innumerable Barbarities upon the Inhabitants, returned again to the Caſtle of Chagre. Other Companies of Bucaniers, Freebooters or Pirates (call 'em which you will) have at ſundry Times, formerly, paſſed from the North to the South Seas by the River Chagre, to the great Damage of the Spaniards, but for many Years paſt they have look'd upon it as almoſt impregnable.

Cuſtom-Houſe, Philadelphia, Entred Inwards.
